

Women's Study Unit

NSS College Pandalam

Report (2019-20)

The Women's Studies Unit, NSS College Pandalam, conducted various activities during the academic year 2019-20. The programs of the year commenced with a counseling program for first-year students conducted by Dr. S Sindhu, Consultant Psychologist, VSM Hospital, on July 8, 2019. She performed a two-hour session on the topic The Need to develop Leadership in Women.

The Unit hosted the Onam program for female students on September 4, 2019, and conducted competitions such as the Athapookkalam Competition, Thiruvathira, and Onappattu.

The Unit, in collaboration with our college's HRDC, visited an old age home, Mahatma Yuva Jana Kendram, on October 1, 2019, the International Day for Older Persons. We shared our joy and performed cultural activities, bringing smiles to the faces of the women who have contributed to various arenas of life and are now spending their golden years there.

The Unit's commitment to holistic development was evident in the variety of activities conducted. A fabric painting workshop on November 23, 2019, saw 50 girl students participating. The Unit also organized programs like Poster-Designing, Face-Painting, and a Cycle-Rally on 4, 5 & 6th March 2020, commemorating International Women's Day 2020.

The Unit's governing body during the year are Dr.Jyothy, C.R. (Convenor), Radhika Krishnan (Convenor), Salini (Convenor), and Jayalekshmi, S (Treasurer).
